

This weeks Recreate is based on The Son Of Man is a self-portrait by the artist Rene Magritte. He became well known for creating a number of witty and thought-provoking images. Often depicting ordinary objects in an unusual context, his work is known for challenging observers' preconditioned perceptions of reality. His imagery has influenced pop art, minimalist art and conceptual art.

Don't forget to share your creations with us on Instagram @creativeartslcc