

School of Public Services

Are you ready to start your new course? Click on the link to find out more about the course you will be studying in the School of Public Services Video

Each week we will be adding new tasks and activities that relate to the units and subjects you will be studying next year. Some require you to respond to us in the week and some will be used in the first term as part of your sessions. Take your time and enjoy your first insight into the world of uniformed and armed services.

Week 1:

Fancy yourself as the next Bear Grylls or maybe just want to work for West Yorkshire Police. Your job might require you to search for a missing person or find a hidden location. Your first task will surely get you thinking about your new role in the Emergency and Armed Services.
