1. POLICY STATEMENT

University Centre Leeds will operate a system for assuring the formal arrangement for student engagement and partnership, in the management of quality enhancement and assurance.

University Centre Leeds has a firm commitment to:

- Ensuring that its processes for engaging with students allow sufficient opportunity for students to provide feedback;
- Providing mechanisms for the management of quality and standards through student engagement and partnership;
- Providing all students with the opportunity to make their views on their educational experience known to University Centre Leeds, and that these opportunities are made known to students.

2. POLICY AIMS/OBJECTIVES

This policy applies to the commitment of University Centre Leeds and the Students' Union to work together in the management of the quality enhancement and assurance of the Higher Education provision offered by University Centre Leeds. This includes a coherent and systematic approach to student representation at all levels of within University Centre Leeds.

Its purpose is to ensure that the HE Student Engagement policy and procedures are implemented consistently across University Centre Leeds and that students are active partners in their learning and in defining the academic and strategic direction of University Centre Leeds. In addition, the HE Student Engagement policy and procedures are fully informed by the requirements of awarding bodies and the revised QAA Quality Code for Higher Education, in particular the Advice and Guidance relating to Student Engagement.

University Centre Leeds encourages the views of students, individually and collectively, in informing quality systems with the purpose of improving the student educational experience both for current and future cohorts. The delivery and development of all aspects of the student educational experience can be positively influenced by student engagement.
