

Beauty Therapist Apprenticeship

Level 2

18 months

Completing beauty treatments in salons and spas.

Apprenticeship overview

A Beauty Therapist works independently or in teams across diverse settings, from luxury salons to cruise ships, delivering one-to-one treatments that meet legal, industry, and organisational standards. They perform services like waxing, nail and foot care, facials, makeup, and basic massage, while ensuring client confidentiality and safety. Key traits include professionalism, a strong work ethic, and a commitment to ongoing learning. Beauty Therapists manage consultations, appointments, and payments, maintaining the salon's image, hygiene, and reputation. They apply a range of techniques with precision, supporting both client wellbeing and the commercial success of their workplace.
