

Chartered Legal Executive Apprenticeship

Level 6

61 months

Providing legal services and advice to a range of clients and colleagues.

Apprenticeship overview

Chartered Legal Executives work in organisations ranging from small law firms to large corporations and public bodies, handling legal matters across all law areas. They provide legal advice, draft documents, and may act as Commissioners for Oaths. Their work can include property transfers, wills, company formation, family law, or criminal cases. They contribute directly to a law firm's income as fee earners. Daily, they manage caseloads, advise clients, and interact with legal teams, clients, government bodies, and regulators. Chartered Legal Executives work independently within their specialism, delivering professional legal services across diverse sectors.
