

Hairdressing Professional Apprenticeship

Level 2

27 months

The hands-on use of hairdressing skills and knowledge, tailored to individual client needs, while delivering exceptional service.

Apprenticeship overview

Hairdressing Professionals work in the customer-facing hair and beauty sector, in settings ranging from small salons to large high street premises. They provide a variety of hairdressing services tailored to client needs through thorough consultations and industry-standard tests. These professionals uphold high standards of client care, safety, and professionalism, working independently with creativity, passion, and a commitment to excellence. They manage their client lists, plan their time effectively, and promote services and products. Daily interactions include clients, colleagues, and other beauty professionals. They are responsible for delivering exceptional results, maintaining industry values, and continuously developing their skills.
