

Lead Adult Care Worker Apprenticeship

Level 3

21 months

Providing first-class, frontline care for vulnerable adults in a range of settings - from their own homes to day care centres, nursing and residential care homes, and other care settings.

Apprenticeship overview

Candidates will learn to provide tailored care for adults - supporting them to achieve their personal goals. The apprenticeship prepares candidates for responsibility as leaders - able to judge the care needs of individuals, as well as supervising, guiding and advising other care workers.

Typical job roles

- Care Officer
- Senior Support Worker
- Relief Team Leader
- Social Services Officer
- Outreach Development Worker
- Family Support Worker
