

People Professional Apprenticeship

Level 5

25 months

Delivering People Professional expertise to support and enhance a company or organisation's workforce and operations.

Apprenticeship overview

People Professionals work across all sectors and organisation sizes, supporting businesses in achieving strategic objectives through effective people management. Their role includes attracting, developing, and retaining talent, managing employee relations, payroll, and ensuring legal compliance. They provide expert advice on employment law, contribute to people strategies, and use data to inform decisions. They engage with stakeholders across the organisation, requiring strong communication, influence, and problem-solving skills. They also contribute to policy development, keep up with industry trends, and play a key role in delivering people-focused initiatives that align with the organisation's goals and adapt to the changing business environment.
