

Specialist Teaching Assistant Apprenticeship

Level 5

27 months

Specialist teaching assistants support learners with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND), social and emotional wellbeing, or work within specific curriculum areas such as forest schools, English as an Additional Language (EAL), subject-specific interventions, or music education.

Apprenticeship overview

Specialist Teaching Assistants work across various educational settings, including schools, colleges, and specialist provisions, supporting learners of all ages. They provide tailored support in areas such as SEND, social and emotional wellbeing, or specific curriculum areas like EAL, forest schools, or music. They plan and adapt activities to enhance learning, build positive relationships with learners and families, and contribute to inclusive, supportive learning environments. Drawing on research and their expertise, they evaluate learning outcomes and may support colleagues' development. While working under a teacher's supervision, they play a key role in advancing learner progress and ensuring learner safety and wellbeing.
