

Leader in Adult Care

Level: 5
Duration: 21 months

Leaders in adult care are responsible for managing the delivery of care services, ensuring they are safe, effective, and well-led.

Apprenticeship overview

This is a management-level apprenticeship for those running care services. You will learn about business development, financial control, and how to lead a values-based culture that ensures high-quality care for all service users.

Core skills, knowledge and behaviours you will learn

- Strategic leadership and management in adult care
- Financial and resource management
- Regulatory compliance and quality improvement (CQC standards)
- Managing safeguarding and risk at an organisational level
- Leading and developing a diverse workforce
- Implementation of evidence-based practice and research)

Typical job roles

- Registered Manager
- Service Manager
- Care Manager
- Area Manager

Where you might work

- Residential or nursing home management
- Domiciliary care agency management
- Community-based service leadership
- Local authority care services

Good to know

This role carries significant legal responsibility as a "Registered Manager"

You will be responsible for the professional development of your entire team

You need strong resilience and the ability to manage complex organisational change